Application of Contract Rate in Table 4:

Rates in Table 4 will apply to any shipper who executes a written contract with the Carrier to transport refined products between the origin and destination shown subject to the following conditions:

- a) Shipper agrees to tender a minimum quantity of one million two hundred seventy thousand five hundred (1,277,500) barrels during each contract year of a minimum two year contract agreement period.
- b) A minimum quantity of seventy-five thousand (75,000) barrels, and a maximum quantity of one-hundred fifty thousand (150,000) barrels will apply to each calendar months shipments.
- c) A monthly deficiency payment equal to the difference between the contract rate in Table 4, and the base rate between the origin and destination in Table 3 of this tariff, will apply to any monthly or contract year deficiency.
- d) A contract year deficiency payment equal to the difference between the contract rate in Table 4, and the base rate between the origin and destination in Table 3 of this tariff, will apply to any contract year volume deficiency. Credit for any monthly deficiencies paid during the contract year will be applied to any annual deficiencies due.
- e) Any volumes in excess of the one-hundred fifty thousand (150,000) barrel monthly maximum will be transported at the base rate shown in Table 3, and will not count toward the contract year minimum commitment.
